Residents hear candidates for Stanhope Council at meeting

STANHOPE — At the candidates night meeting on Saturday evening in the firehall, nearly 60 residents attended despite the rainy cold night. The meeting began shortly after 8 pm with Alex Stevenson acting as chairman.

Reeve Jim Harrison thanked all those present and expressed appreciation for their support. He said council would continue with a road improvement program and obtain further grants for Home Renewal in the township.

Elgin Stouffer appreciated being given an acclamation and spoke of the fine co-operation of the township staff.

Leroy Eager speaking on management of the County school system thought that in most areas it was more than satisfactory and students who went to universities or colleges were such as to reflect credit on our system.

Ann Barker the first of the new candidates to speak, gave an outline of her various involvements in community activities for some years before coming to Stanhope and since becoming a resident here. She is determined to do all she could to provide the best in municipal management.

Councillor Harry Davis reviewed the past two years and thought that this council had done a good job. He said that much time had been given to committee meetings and various seminars and asked for re-election support so he could continue to serve.

Penny Gough, another first time candidate believed that a woman's voice on council would be an asset and pointed out that besides being nearly 50 percent of the voters, women also contributed a great deal to support community efforts. In her presentation she told the audience that she had resided here since 1973, worked as a secretary-bookkeeper had studied real estate sales and property management. She included in her platform such items as roads, encourages business and industry provided it was non-polluting and would blend with the scenery of the township.

Councillor Elvin Johnson stated that the last two years had its share of frustrations and rewards, but thought that the rewards proved greater. He said that in addition to his council duties he served on the fire committee, the recreation committee, the library and parks committee. He was involved in the work done under the Experience '79 and Experience

OPP remind motorists to drive carefully Hallowe'en evening

Minden — The Minden Detachment of the OPP will remind motorists and pedestrians to use extreme caution this Friday evening during Halloween. Many streets have leaves on them and when wet, the leaves are as slippery as ice when the brakes are applied.

The time change this past week will make it darker earlier and children out trick or treating should be aware of the reduced visibility. Reflective strips on clothing or carrying a flashlight will make you more visible as you make your rounds.

We hope the responsible attitude of the young adults in the County will be evident again this year. In the past years there have been very few incidents of wilful damage or mischief associated with Halloween in the area, although it has been some time since Halloween has occurred on a week-end.

All available units from the Minden OPP will be utilized throughout the area on Friday evening and into Saturday morning. Strict enforcement will be applied to those who feel they must have their 'fun' at someone else's expense by breaking the law.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to express our appreciation to all the citizens who gave assistance to the members of Minden Detachment during the search that was conducted for the late Mr. Grenville Dart.

During the evening of the 3rd of October 1980 this detachment was made aware that Mr. DART had gone missing in the Bush area around Fort Irwin. During the next three days an extensive search was made by our members and volunteers from the area. The area covered by the search consisted of very dense bush spotted by swamps, beaver ponds, wind-falls, and criss-crossed by logging roads. On top of this the weather was extremely adverse as it continued to rain all the time the search was being conducted.

I would like to thank every person who participated in any capacity. There were searchers who walked the bush, the people who drove the roads, the persons who assisted with advise who knew the area. There must be a special thanks to the ladies of the community who kept everyone supplied with sandwiches and hot coffee.

I have written letters to most of those involved but I would like to use this space to say it, again and to ensure no one is missed.

Once again thank you on behalf of the Detachment for your assistance and co-operation during this very difficult task.

Speaking on behalf of our members, we wish to express our sympathy to the DART family.

Hallowe'en advice for all parents and children

The Canada Safety Council has some advice for children, parents and motorists as Hallowe'en fast approaches.

Children should:

1. Wear light coloured, flame resistant costumes with retro-reflective strippings so that they are easily seen by motorists;
2. Clothing must be short enough to avoid a tripping hazard;
3. Face masks must not obstruct vision. Make-up is preferable;

4. Calls should be made along one side of the street or road and then along the other. No criss-crossing. Children should cross the street at intersections, crosswalks and be especially careful (looking both ways) before crossing a highway;
5. Let them carry a flashlight to see better and to be better seen;
6. They should travel in groups of five or six. Small children should be accompanied by an adult;
7. Set a curfew and boundaries within familiar areas;
8. Forbid them firmly to enter the house or apartment of a stranger;
9. Children must not eat any gifts until they can be inspected by an adult at home;
10. Drivers should be particularly careful on Hallowe'en night as a little goblin might dart out of the darkness unexpectedly.

Lets all make this Hallowe'en safe in every province.

It is difficult to cling to a diet until it is effective, especially if you have a sweet tooth. If you are dieting by cutting daily caloric intake, include a low calorie dessert on your menu. You can make one from nonfat dry milk, skim milk, egg whites and unflavored gelatin, pineapple juice and apricot nectar that is attractive, refreshing and only about 70 calories per half cup.

PINEAPPLE-APRICOT GELATO

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup nonfat dry milk

- powder
- 1 1/2 cups skim milk
- 1/3 cup unsweetened pineapple juice

- 1/3 cup apricot nectar
- 2 egg whites

In medium saucepan, mix unflavored gelatin, sugar and nonfat dry milk powder. Stir in milk. Place over low heat. Stir constantly until gelatin dissolves, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat, cool slightly and stir in juices. Pour into freezer tray and freeze until firm.

In large chilled bowl, beat gelatin mixture and egg whites at high speed until smooth and fluffy. Turn into 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Return to freezer and freeze. Makes about 5 1/2 cups. Approximately 70 calories per half cup serving.

STANHOPE NOTES

by A. F. Stevenson

When asked if there were any matters of importance to be pursued by the incoming 1981-82 Council, the present members had the following thoughts on the subjects which might be considered.

Reeve Harrison: Work to maintain efficiency and harmony within the fire department. Continued upgrading of the roads and thus reducing maintenance costs. Proper handling of the 66 foot lake shore allowances. Continue to seek grants for the Home Renewal Program. Strive for a clean environment and continue to keep Council informed on matters affecting the environment. Recreation must be given continued support in the Township by improving, where feasible, existing facilities. Provision of adequate services while striving to contain expenditures. Keeping the Township of Stanhope completely free of debt.

Deputy Reeve Stouffer: Employment opportunities, with benefit to the community. Voluntary efforts in this municipality have been very productive in enriching the life of the Township and these groups of community minded citizens should be given every reasonable encouragement. It can be said that these voluntary workers are providing a high level of assistance and could be considered as perhaps our most valuable asset.

Councilman Elvin Johnson: A closer look should be taken at the costs of transferring the 66 foot allowance. I believe they are higher than necessary. Positive action should be taken by Environment agencies to check all shoreline sewage systems. Completion of an equipped playground is a must as is expansion of the park at the Halls Lake swim area.

Councilman Davis: Keeping the budget at a reasonable level without creating an undue burden on the taxpayers, keeping in mind an increasing number of retirement people and a reducing number in our school system. We could possibly look closely at programs for our senior citizens, determining the needs that lie in the years ahead. I would like to see some way of encouraging local young people to upgrade their education in the field of skilled trades. With regard to recreation, I would like to see a drive made to install lights at the tennis courts.

MRS PENNY GOUGH, who along with Ann Barker and Dale MacDonald, is a newcomer to the Councilmanic elections, states that she believes that improvement of Stanhope roads would be a benefit to the tourist industry and thus strengthen the local economy. She would strive to prevent any pollution of the environment. Mrs Gough would also support measures to preserve the old Council Chamber, and try to make available reminders of Stanhope's past.

A discussion with ANN BARKER brought out some concerns which she has re: municipal affairs and which were of interest. She was emphatic in stating that there should be no undertakings which would result in a municipal debenture debt, but felt that there should be a planned program for development which would make use of annual budgeting and current ability to pay. She also was of the opinion that some shoreline sewage systems were a matter of concern for those interested in the maintenance of the water quality of our lakes. She made it clear that she was on the side of the people who were anti-pollutionists. Another subject of some substantial senior citizen population. It is her opinion that most of the seniors are self sustained but the township will need to give consideration to some amenities of life for this segment of the population. At the other end of the age spectrum, the candidate saw a need for Stanhope Township to support every effort to encourage light clean industry to locate in Haliburton County, since the more such industry was established in this area, the better the employment opportunities would be for our own young people coming on to the labour market. Among the other considerations Ann has are those related to tourism, and on this point she feels that the township has done what lies within its means in encouraging this part of the community's life, but any opportunity to encourage this industry should be taken advantage of, by the Township.

CANDIDATE DALE MACDONALD indicated that he was concerned with the costs involved in transferring the 66 foot right of way but is also desirous of a clearer definition of this whole subject. Dale, who is one of the members of the fire department who is always available for day time duty, has an interest in a dependable and efficient fire protection service for the Township and this will be a definite focus of interest for him, should he be elected to Council.

We have indicated the thoughts of the candidates for election to the Council and now we would like to offer a few thoughts of our own. First we would publicly state our appreciation of the letter written by Mrs Dorothy Kinsman to the papers, October 15th, re: Terry Fox and his wonderfully inspiring action for a cause he believed in. We think her letter said for all of us, what we may have a hard time putting together ourselves. In our opinion we need the inspiration of the young Terry Fox's of our nation, rather than the leadership of those marble-headed politicians who seem happy to rip our country apart to serve their own interest or those of their mentors, whoever they may be.

Certainly there seems to be mighty little leadership being offered in this matter of constitutional crisis, a crisis which few of us are aware of till our national leaders spout off, too often only in their own interest. The matter of the constitution should be handled in an extremely judicious and statesman-like way, and this, it is not getting. Statesmanship — phooey.

Stanhope firefighters again demonstrated the community spirit and dedication when a fire call was received at 5:40 a.m. Tuesday, October 21st. A cottage was already burning furiously on the south west part of Kushog Lake. Within 15 minutes the equipment was on the site, but since the house was already doomed all the firemen could do was extinguish the fire.

The remarkable thing about this event was that at this early hour when many of the firefighters were preparing to go to work, 16 firefighters responded

On Monday night, October 6 Bingo players decided by a positive show of hands, to hold a "Thanksgiving" bingo. Special prizes were donated by Mrs. Peggy Whitney. The "Snowball" has now risen to over $100 and waiting to be won in 21 numbers.

The first "pot luck" luncheon, sponsored by the Golden Age Club was held on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Attendance for a first effort was excellent, 40-50, which Mrs. Ev Stata hopes to double next time. To newcomers a hearty welcome is extended. After lunch cards, crokinole and cribbage were in play.

Mrs. Doris McCann, Chairman of the County Home Support Service announced at the luncheon, that shortly a Thursday bus service will be in effect. This is a direct result of answers to questionnaires mailed to Seniors earlier in the year. The bus service will run from 9:30 a.m., with return trip leaving Haliburton at 2:00 p.m., the cost $2 return. The tentative route, Eagle Lake to West Guilford, North Shore Road (Green Lake area), Maple Lake, St. Peter's Road to 530 to Haliburton. This transportation facility is a great step forward for folk who have had to depend in the past, on neighbours and friends, or taxis. The next "pot luck" lunch will be held on Tuesday, November 18 instead of the 11th — Armistice Day.

The monthly dances at the Centre are the most popular and well attended "happening" and Oct. 18 was no exception. The draw for the quilt was made and the lucky winner was Kathy Crawford of Ingoldsby, who had bought the last ticket sold by Heather Harrington before she left for Calgary.

A craft class was initiated Wednesday, Oct. 22 from 10-11:30 a.m. The greatest demand was for instruction in basket weaving, capably demonstrated by Arlene Edwards. Xmas decorations were displayed by Kim Stamp and Valerie Chumbley, and Macrame by Delaine Sawyers.

On a different note, an article in a recent Globe & Mail headed "Proposals invited on television in remote areas" states that "under serviced" areas are those with three or fewer TV channels. We surely come into this category. Is the CRTC aware that viewers living less than 150 miles from Toronto, are unable to see the Wednesday night Maple Leafs??

New owners at Hollow Valley Lodge and Tavern

Craig from Glasgow, Scotland while Jay and Kel Stone hail from Liverpool, England.

Dorset — Hollow Valley Lodge and Tavern took on a dash of merry Old England last week when new owners, Bill and Margaret Craig, Kel and Jay Stone took over this northern country resort.

The Craigs from Glasgow, Scotland, arrived in Canada in 1973, after vacationing here in Ontario in 1972. They were so impressed with the country, the day they returned to Scotland, Bill and Margaret immediately applied for their immigration papers. One year later they arrived here in Ontario, where Bill was employed as a dental technician in Windsor.

Kel Stone, a semi-professional musician from Liverpool, England, arrived in Canada in 1965. Kel met his wife Jay in St. Catharines, where he was employed as retail sales manager for Sears.

The Stones and Craigs met five years ago in Windsor and became friends. That friendship ultimately led to their present partnership in the Hollow Valley Lodge & Tavern. Which was originally built in 1938.

It presently has twelve cabins, each of these now being moved onto new foundations. The main objective of the new owners is to make the Lodge less of a seasonal business and more of a year-round business. The Lodge will be open for the first time this winter for winter enthusiasts, snowmobilers, cross country skiers, ice-fisherman etc.

The Lodge will also feature daily luncheon's and dinners, seven days a week, as well as the usual menu items. Their hours will be Noon til 1 a.m. Monday to Saturday and Noon til 10 p.m. on Sunday.

Kel and Bill also have many plans for the Lodge in the near future, like the addition of recreational facilities for their guests, a new marina and a new lodge. Immediate expansion this coming spring will see a new grocery store added to the resort, featur-

The Tavern at Hollow Valley Lodge has been turned into a 'Pub' right out of merry old England, with sing-a-longs every Thursday and Saturday. If last week is any indication as to how popular this resort is going to be, the Craigs and Stones are going to get their expansion and new resort facilities a lot sooner than they expected.

Brock eliminates Hal. from-play-offs

CANNINGTON — The Brock Bulldogs, of Cannington, not only avenged an early season 1-0 loss to the Haliburton Redmen with an 8-4 home-feld victory last week, but they also knocked the locals out of the play-offs. Also falling to the Junior Bulldoggers were the Haliburton Juniors, this time 14-0, giving them a three-game season's record of two losses and a tie.

The Senior Redmen got off to a quick 1-0 lead early in the first quarter, when quarterback-punter Ron Yake booted a single. Haliburton went up 3-0 before the half ended, when the tough Redmen defense sacked the Brock quarterback in the end zone for a two-point safety touch.

Early in the third quarter, Haliburton fumbled a Brock punt at their own one yard line and it was recovered by the Bulldogs. One play later Brock scored the only major of the game, and with a successful two point conversion went ahead 8-3. Haliburton added a single in the fourth but that was as close as they came in the contest. Final, 8-4.

Haliburton lost a great deal of their running game in the third quarter, when star running back Jamie Rogers suffered a badly sprained ankle, requiring hospital treatment. Haliburton just couldn't get anything going after he left. They used the pass for much of the second half and came close in the fourth to pulling out a victory, however a pass went incomplete to a wide open Redmen receiver in the Brock end zone

Something for all the family at the 52nd Royal

More than 800 volunteers across Canada are busy putting the final plans into action for the opening of the 52nd Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, November 13 to 22.

Livestock judging and auction sales of beef and dairy cattle, sheep, goats and swine lend an international excitement as buyers from around the world get ready to enter the bidding for some of the famous purebred dairy and beef cattle Canada has to offer. All these events are open to the public each day of this world-renowned Fair.

Having won the gold medal championship in the Nation's Cup in Rotterdam, Holland, the Canadian Equestrian Team will be striving to maintain its top standing against teams from France, Germany and the U.S.A. at all performances of the Royal Horse Show. Six matinees and eight evening performances will see competitive action from Hackneys, Hunters, Arabians, Palominos, Belgians, Clydesdales, Percherons and Roadsters.

The Royal Flower Show attracts people of all ages to wander along broad avenues banked with magnificent floral displays arranged by parks departments and florists of southern Ontario. Exotic birds and live animals will be interspersed among more than 20,000 plants.

Three Canadian singing duos and organ music by Dorothy Brombey-Smythe will provide entertainment daily along with square dancing on Saturdays and Sunday.

A new arts and crafts area has been created this year where twenty Canadian artisans and craftsmen will be actively working in their chosen medium. Hand-crafted quilts, sheep-skin clothing, dolls, toys, sculptures in marble and metals, gold and silver jewelry, brass and copper wares, pottery, py-sanky, watercolour and oil paintings, leathercraft and much more will be displayed and sold.

Twenty-seven marketing boards and growers' associations will be represented in Foodland Ontario '80 where producers and consumers will meet and discuss their food needs. Continuous daily stage demonstrations, food sampling, free draws and information pamphlets on nutritional values and recipes are available. A wine garden provides an opportunity to sit and enjoy music and magic each afternoon and evening.

Every year the Royal features a major field crop. For the first time in the history of the Canadian potato industry, provincial marketing boards and grower's associations have joined together to present a national picture depicting the production, processing and marketing of this vital crop. This exhibit, created especially for the 1980 Royal, will later be used throughout the country to promote potatoes.

November 13, 15 and 16 will see the First Annual Prince Philip Cup Games at the Royal. In the spirit of a national east vs. west challenge, provincial Pony Club teams will compete in events designed for agility, speed and horsemanship.

Other events during the action-packed ten-day show include a sheep shearing contest, and an international poster competition. General admission for adults is $3.50, students $2.00, children under 12, $1.25. Senior citizens $1.25 on November 13 and 14. Royal Horse Show tickets are $6.50 to $9.00 and include General Admission.

There's something for everyone at this year's Royal. Doors open at 8:00 a.m., Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. on Sunday. For more information and Royal Horse Show tickets, contact the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, Exhibition Place, Toronto, Ontario

Snowy Owl

The snowy owl is one of the exhibits in the Canada North Museumobile. Shy and silent, the snowy owl is the ghost of the Arctic. The cryptic markings of the owl act as a camouflage device to blend it in with the melting snow of the flat northern tundra. As an active daytime hunter, it preys on such animals as the lemming, muskrat, hare.

Enjoy a festival of harvest favourites

It's Harvest Festival time again. It's a time when the fruits and vegetables have ripened and have been brought in from the fields and orchards. It's a nostalgic occasion which recalls a time of happiness from experiences long past. A time of red and gold leaves when our country looks its best and we are fortunate to partake of its bounty.

Traditionally, Harvest Time is a time of joy and thankfulness and a time of gathering with family and friends and sharing in good meals. What better time to present some old fashioned fruit and vegetable favourites as accompaniments to a traditional roast turkey or meat dish or as the main course.

An apple stuffed with yams brings exciting taste appeal to meat or fowl dishes. Or a casserole of harvest vegetables may be served as the main entree or used to accompany meats. And to please the dessert lovers, a refreshing orange and grape tart with its zesty flavour of fresh fruits. From appetizer to dessert, harvest vegetables in their best dress will make your table look bountiful and festive.

Enjoy a Festival of your Harvest Favourites with these recipes.

Halloween means caution

Owls hoot their warning; ghosts moan their lament; witches cackle with pleasure; black cats dart across your path, and the leering grins of jack-o-lanterns seem to appear from every window. It's Hallowe'en!

The Ontario Motor League reminds motorists that extra precautions are necessary to ensure the safety of all the little would-be ghosts, goblins and witches that are out on the prowl this special night in search of their Hallowe'en loot. Since young masqueraders will have their thoughts on fun, not safety, the auto club cautions drivers to be especially careful of youngsters darting across the street.

Parents should take steps to make sure their children can see where they're going and be seen by motorists. The best time to trick or treat is while it is still light outside. If children must go out at night, they should wear light-coloured clothing, preferable outlined in reflective tape, and carry a flashlight to help light their path as well as to warn oncoming motorists. Getting the trick-or-treaters to wear makeup instead of masks is another good idea.

In addition, the OML urges parents to accompany children on their walk, or arrange for them to go in a group, with a clear understanding of which route they will take and when they will be expected home. Parents should also advise their youngsters to obey traffic signals and cross streets only at intersections.

Adults can contribute to a safe, happy Hallowe'en by making sure their entrances and sidewalks are well lighted. The jack-o-lantern's grin may be a bright one, but it does little to light the way for anxious trick-or-treaters.
